

Discovery Piscine: Introduction to Python — Rules & Terms

42 Warsaw (17–21.11.2025)

Organizer: 42 Warsaw, al. Solidarności 171B (SPARK building), Warsaw.

Event name: Discovery Piscine: Introduction to Python.

Duration: 5 days, 17–21 November 2025 (Monday–Friday), 9:00 AM–5:00 PM each day.

Venue: 42 Warsaw campus, on-site.

Working language: English (conversational level required).

Cost: free of charge.

1. Purpose & format

1.1. The training introduces Python programming and enables participants to check their potential for learning to code and possible new career paths.

1.2. The event is intensive, delivered in a friendly, international environment and uses a peer-to-peer and project-based learning model.

1.3. The training does not include traditional instructor-led classes (no teachers, classes or workshops); learning happens through collaboration and solving practical tasks covering Python basics.

1.4. The Discovery Piscine is not part of 42 Warsaw's recruitment process. It is an opportunity to experience our learning model and see whether coding is for you.

2. Eligibility

2.1. Participants must be at least 18 years old.

2.2. The event is on-site only.

2.3. No prior programming experience is required.

2.4. A command of English sufficient for smooth teamwork communication is required.

3. Applications & deadlines

3.1. Applications are open until 12 November 2025.

3.2. Submit your application via the registration form:
<https://5fvt1pov6b4.typeform.com/to/aEVS9EUL>

3.3. Planned capacity: 100. Applications will be selected based on answers provided in the form. The Organizers may increase the number of places.

4. Organisation & conduct

4.1. Participants work on practical mini-projects covering Python fundamentals, supporting one another.

4.2. Attendance from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM each training day is required to fully benefit from the programme. In exceptional cases, the Organizers may allow an absence on one training day.

4.3. Participants are required to follow the principles of professional conduct, mutual respect and safety.

4.4. The Organizer may introduce non-material operational changes (e.g., daily schedule) for valid reasons and will inform participants accordingly.

4.5. Respect & inclusivity: During the Discovery Piscine everyone addresses each other with respect. Discriminatory, aggressive or dignity-violating behaviour is not acceptable.

4.6. “Space Eagles” support: The educational process is supported by the Space Eagles student group, who assist both academically and—especially—organisationally during the Discovery Piscine.

4.7. Certificates: Participants receive a certificate of attendance if present for all 5 days of training, or a certificate of completion if they complete all projects planned within the Discovery Piscine.

5. Space & facilities rules

5.1. Clusters & computer stations: Participants use the designated clusters (areas with computers for project work). Food or drinks in unsealed containers/bottles are not allowed in clusters.

5.2. Student kitchen: Participants may use the kitchen, including the fridge. Food must be labelled; after meals, participants must load dishes into the dishwasher and clean up after themselves.

5.3. Entry/exit: Access to and from the 42 Warsaw campus follows the Organizer's guidelines (e.g., badges, entry/exit log, guest policy).

6. Withdrawal & changes

6.1. Participation is free of charge; in case of withdrawal, please notify the Organizer promptly so that a wait-listed person can take your place.

6.2. In circumstances beyond the Organizer's control (force majeure, etc.), the event may be rescheduled or cancelled; participants will be informed through appropriate channels.

7. Final provisions

7.1. Submitting an application implies acceptance of these Rules & Terms.

7.2. Matters not covered herein are governed by 42 Warsaw's general policies.

7.3. Organizer contact: 42 Warsaw, al. Solidarności 171B, Warsaw (SPARK building) or contact@42warsaw.pl.

7.4. Organisational information will be communicated to participants through channels designated by the Organizer and to the e-mail addresses provided in the application.
